Winter Dinner Series

Great friends, mouth watering food and delicious wine. Add a crackling fireplace and our capable team to attend to your every whim... and surely we have lured you out of winter hibernation?!

Wither Hills Chief Winemaker Ben Glover is joined by Shelley Cox, St. Hallett Winemaker, to host the first evening from our Winter Dinner Series. The two winemakers will entertain between courses with insight into regional, varietal and vintage variation - offering their opinions on what makes a food and wine match work.

Our guest winery hails from the heart of the Barossa Valley in South Australia and produced their first wine in 1944. St Hallett plumbs the rich textures and depth of Barossa fruit to craft benchmark wines that, vintage after vintage, are acclaimed as some of the best expressions of Barossa terroir.

Our talented chef, Alain Hauswirth, has created a six course degustation dinner to complement a selection of both Wither Hills and St Hallett wines. We look forward to you joining us.
